

Dying Matters Awareness Week

12-17 May 2014

A series of thought provoking events encouraging people to talk about death and dying including:-

Alive: In The Face of Death

An exhibition from world famous photographer Rankin

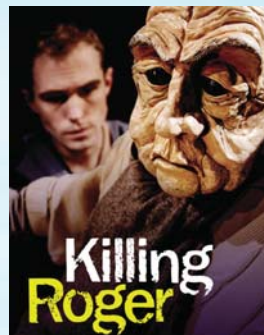

In 'Alive: In The Face of Death', photographer Rankin sets out to explore and challenge our perceptions of death. Through his lens, the stories of those touched by death are revealed.

Storey Institute

Tue 13 to Sat 17 May

Open 10-4, free admission

Killing Roger

A moving and humorous tale of an old man and a boy at opposite ends of their lives. Provocative, moving, beautiful. Following 5 star runs in London and at Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2013, Killing Roger comes to The Dukes.

Contact
The Dukes on 01524 598500

The Dukes
Thu 15 May

Dying to know...?

An interactive workshop

You are invited to learn and ask questions about matters of life and death including:-

- National speakers
- Conversations for Life
- Exhibition
- Free lunch!

To book call 01524 512497

email: dyingmatters2014@outlook.com

Storey

Institute

Thu 15 May

For details of all events taking place please visit:-

www.sjhospice.org.uk/dyingmatters

Dying Matters

Let's talk about it

You only die once...?